On September 20, 2012, NAEYC received a permissions inquiry as described below.

From (name and/or title): Terri Buccarelli

Title of requested publication/article(s): Nemeth, K. N., & V. Erdosi. 2012. "Enhancing Practice with Infants and Toddlers from Diverse Language and Cultural Backgrounds." Young Children 67 (4): 49-57.

For use in: www.njcite.org/newsroom

Publisher(s): Coalition of Infant/Toddler Educators

 Subject to the terms of this agreement, permission to reprint the material you have requested (text only—no photos, no illustrations) is granted. This permission is for nonexclusive distribution rights throughout the world in English only in the printed or electronic versions, including derivatives (e.g., abridgements, split editions, brief editions, English language adaptations, and custom versions for use by a particular school or instructor) of or related to this website only. Promotional use is limited to the page level (NAEYC material must appear in the original context of the textbook page). New permission is required for any other use, including without limitation, subsequent editions/revisions or any other translation, excluding reproductions of this edition of the book for the visually impaired or the disabled.

 Please provide full publication information (seen above) plus this credit line on each copy distributed:

"Copyright © 2012 NAEYC®. Reprinted with permission."

Remit payment of $0.00, payable to NAEYC Permissions (Tax ID 36-6009499) if you agree to the above terms. Permission will be effective on receipt of copy signed and dated by an authorized Coalition of Infant/Toddler Educators representative, as there is no fee for author requesting to reprint her own work.
